Opinions of the Press of Richmond's Legal Forms, Interest and Exchange Tables, &c. &c.

We have received from Mr. W. Harrison Richmond, a copy of a new work he has just published, and which will be found a most invaluable assistant to all mercantile men, and those having to transact any kind of business. It is a "book of legal forms for the legal transaction of business," and contains upwards of one hundred different forms most commonly in use, and a want of knowledge of which is sure to entail expense, and perhaps loss, on the party requiring them. Every day parties feel the inconvenience of not having a form for drawing up particular kinds of receipts or contracts, or for the want of such simple legal facts as Mr. Richmond has brought together with a correctness and brevity and clearness which do him infinite credit. Besides these forms, the book contains profit and discount tables, interest tables, currency tables, &c &c., rendering it as complete as it is useful. In short, it is just such a work as no one who sees it will consent to remain a day without, and as such we heartily commend it to the public. —Mantreal Transcript, December 5, 1851.

BOOK OF LEGAL FORMS, &c., by W. Harrison Richmond. Lovell & Gibson, Montreal.

This is a very valuable work to all business men, containing the new Currency Act; the Act respecting Protested Notes and Bills of Exchange; Profit and Discount Tables; Interest Tables; Tables of Exchange on England at par and at various rates of premium; Currency converted into Sterling, and vice versa, &c. &c.—besides a greater variety of forms, both legal and customary; with explanations of various terms and transactions. Being printed in good clear type, it will in all probability become a standard companion to every counting house in the Province.—Toronto Daily Patriot January 10, 1851.

RICHMOND'S LEGAL FORMS, or a useful manual for the transaction of business—adapted for the merchant, mechanic, or farmer,—Crown octavo. Lovell & Gibson Printers, Montreal,—price 7s. 6d. in leather.

The above new publication contains a variety of useful forms, adapted to facilitate the ordinary transaction of business—such as forms of deeds of various kinds, memorials, bonds, wills, sales, assignments, mortgages, leases, powers of attorney, articles of co-partnership—copies of approved forms for accounts, receipts, promissory notes, letters on business, besides copies of the last acts of Parliament relating to the currency and the protesting of notes; together with tables of interest from 4 to 7 per cent., profiit and discount tables from 1½ to 75 per cent, commission tables, and tables for transferring currency or sterling into dollars and cents and vice versa.—The work will form a convenient and economical assistant in the office of the merchant or trader, and in the library of the farmer or mechanic.—Toronto Examiner, January 15, 1851.

LEGAL FORMS, INTEREST AND EXCHANGE TABLES, &c., BY W. HARRISON RICHMOND, author of a Comprehensive System of Book-keeping by Double Entry.

The above work, as its title purports, is "adapted to the use of merchants, clerks, mechanics, farmers, and all men retired to private life." It contains, besides the forms named, tables of Profit and Discount, Commission, Interest, Exchange, &c. The work has been well spoken of, by some of our contemporaries, in Montreal and elsewhere, whose opinions, on such a subject, we may safely endorse, and recommend the work to public favour. The price is 7s. 6d., currency, per copy. Mr. Richmond is at present in Upper Canada, for the purpose of disposing of the edition on hand.—Toronto Colonist, January 17, 1851.

RICHMOND'S LEGAL FORMS AND INTEREST AND EXCHANGE TABLES.—The author has presented us with a copy of this work, which he is now delivering to subscribers. It is very neatly got up, contains 291 pages, and is bound in a substantial manner. The publication supplies a want which has been long felt by men of business, and can scarcely be less acceptable to those who are not well posted up in legal forms. As a book of reference we consider it invaluable, and are only surprised that it is published at so low a price. Mr. Richmond will receive orders from non-subcribers for copies at 7s. 6d. each.—Hamilton Spectator, January 18, 1851.

THE AUTHOR AND COMPILER.

REGISTER YOUR DEEDS.

Extract from the Act to amend the Registry Law of Upper Canada, 13th and 14th Victoria.

CAP. LXIII. 10th August, 1850.

The first Sec. provides, that whenever any judgment shall have been registered before the passing of this Act, the party in whose favor the same shall have been rendered, may require the Register of any County to mark on the margin of such registry, and sign the same, registered this day of A. D. eighteen and such entry of registry shall have the same effect from such date as if it had been registered under this Section.

Sec. 2nd. And be it enacted, That a judgment to be entered up against any person in any Court of Record in Upper Canada, after the first day of January, 1851, shall operate as a charge, so soon as a certificate of such judgment shall have been duly registered, upon all lands, tenements and hereditaments situate within the County where such certificate shall have been registered as aforesaid, of or to which such person shall at the time of registering such judgment, or at any time afterwards, be seized, possessed or entitled, for any estate or interest whatever at Law or in Equity, whether in possession, reversion, remainder or expectancy, or over which such person shall at the time of registering such judgment, or at any time afterwards have any disposing power, which he might without the assent of any other person exercise for his own benefit, and shall be binding against the person against whom judgment shall be so entered up and registered, and against all persons claiming under him after such judgment and registry.

By the 3rd Sec. All deeds, devisees, &c., executed after 1st day of January, 1851, must be registered, as this Section enacts that "every Conveyance is to be held fraudulent and void, as against any subsequent purchaser, or creditor, who registers a judgment; unless such Conveyance shall be first registered."

Property is given to the first Conveyance, or the first judgment registered. And by the 8th Section, the mere fact of registration is declared to be full notice to all purchasers. This Statute then does, in effect, render it necessary that all Deeds, Mortgages, Wills, Judgments, Conveyances, Bills of Sale, &c., should be registered, (therefore it will be well for every one to bear that in mind).

"The first thing necessary," says Lord Chesterfield, "in writing letters of business, is extreme clearness and perspicuity; every paragraph should be so clear and unambiguous that the dullest fellow in the world may not be able to mistake it, nor be obliged to read it twice in order to understand it. This necessary clearness implies a correctness, without excluding an elegance of style."

LETTER I.

Answer to an Advertisement for the Situation of a Clerk.

SIR,

In reply to an advertisement inserted in the Transcript of this day, I beg to present myself to your notice, as being qualified to fill the situation referred to—that of Clerk and Book-keeper in your establishment. I have long been accustomed to that employment, and my last engagement, which I left on account of ill-health, continued for the space of five years, during which time, as I am prompted to believe, from the flattering assurances made by my employers, my services gave them the fullest satisfaction. My present letter will serve as a specimen of my hand-writing, and I beg to add that I am well versed in book-keeping, both by single and double entry, and also well acquainted with the public offices, and the business of the Custom-house. Should you wish to communicate with my late employers, the Messrs. Jewett & Stearns, of Quebec, I have confidence in the belief that they will speak favourably of me.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

LETTER II.

Application for the Character of a Clerk.

SIR,

Having lately parted with one of my clerks, I advertised, a few days since, in the Montreal Transcript, with a view of meeting with a suitable person to fill his place. Among other applicants, th.. is one named Hamilton, who tells me that he has been eng..ed in your office in the capacity of clerk during the last four years, I was somewhat pleased with his address and manner; and if his pretensions as to capability and character should prove satisfactory, I feel disposed to give him a trial. I shall therefore feel obliged if you will inform me whether he has been in your employment during that time, and if so, whether you found him quick and correct in his calculations, well versed in book-keeping, industrious, sober, and punctual in his habits, and of the strictest integrity. On the last point, it is needful I should be particularly circumspect, as his situation would be one of trust. An early answer to these inquiries, with any information you may have to give in reference to what you may know about him, will extremely oblige,

Sir,

Your very obt. servant,

LETTER III.

In answer to Inquiries respecting the Character of a Clerk.

SIR,

Your letter reached me this morning, and in reference to my knowledge of Mr. Hamilton, I beg to inform you that he performed the duties of clerk in my counting-house for upwards of four years, during which time his conduct was marked with the strictest integrity: and in his habits of business, I always found him alert, industrious and punctual. Indeed these praiseworthy traits in his character, united with a pliant and accommodating disposition, won my esteem: and I should not have wished him to quit my employment, had I not been from peculiar circumstances, obliged, for the present, to reduce my establishment.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours, most obediently.

LETTER IV.

From a Trader in the Country to a Merchant in the City.

SIR,

Having been recommended to you by Mr. Harris, with whom I served my apprenticeship, I have herewith sent you a small order, as under, which I hope you will execute on as good terms, and with the same care and dispatch, as for the rest of your correspondents. After having given me the usual credit, I will remit you the amount in Cash; and if you treat me well, I will omit no opportunity of increasing my commissions, and testifying that I am, with much respect,

Sir,
Yours Respectfully.

LETTER V.

A Wholesale to a Retail Firm.

GENTLEMEN,

We beg to inform you that we have lately opened a large establishment in the (Fancy Goods line,) and have provided an extensive stock of the choicest goods and the most fashionable patterns. Soliciting the custom of your Respectable firm, we at the same time desire to assure you that any orders you may favour us with, will receive our best attention. We have a few choice samples of ( ), rarity at present, and well worthy of your notice.

We are, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servants.

LETTER VI.

A Gentleman proposing his Son as an Apprentice.

SIR,

As I understand that you have a vacancy for an apprentice, I am anxious to place my son under your charge, in order that he may acquire a competent knowledge of your business, which he seems strongly inclined to follow in preference to another. I know not what your terms may be, but if favourable, I shall have no objection to complying with them; and with the view of settling that point, shall be happy either to receive a note from you, or to meet you at your own, or my house. Allow me to add, that my son has received a good plain education, fully adequate to all the requirements of a man of business, and that I think you would find him of a cheerful and pliant disposition, of industrious habits, aud quick in receiving any kind of instruction.

I am, Sir,
Your very obedient servt.

LETTER VII.

On Retiring from Business, and Recommending a Successor.

GENTLEMEN,

We flatter ourselves that we have many friends among our connection who will regret to hear that we are just upon the point of relinquishing business. In doing so, our extensive stock of goods will be transferred to the hands of the Messrs. Hutchins & Wilson, who will, in future, carry on the business on the same approved system, and the same extensive scale as ourselves, provided they can rely on receiving the patronage of our connection; in the hopes of which, it is our pleasure and duty to present those gentlemen to your notice. We need scarcely speak of the confidence we feel in their liberal mode of conducting business, and their strict attention and punctuality in their mercantile transactions. Feeling assured that they will meet with the same countenance received by ourselves from your Respectable firm.

We beg to subscribe ourselves
Your obliged and Most obt. servant.

NOTE.—This statement shows the balance only of accounts due from others to me, and from me to others, together with the present value of the various kinds of property of which I am in possession as owner. Whenever you wish to know the amount of nett profit realized in business during a given interval of time, it is necessary that you should make a statement of all the debts due to you, together with all the property of which you are in possession as owner, as they are exhibited in the above left hand columns. Then place all the balances which are due from you to others in the right hand columns, including the amount of capital commenced with (as above.) The difference between the aggregate of these columns, when footed, is the result of the investigation. If the left hand columns contain more than the right hand, the difference is your nett amount of profit. But if the right hand columns contain more than the left, the difference is your misfortune, and shows that your business has been so much worse than nothing; in other words, that you have lost rather than gained. The difference between your present nett capital, and what it was at any previous period, is the loss or gain during the interval. In the above example it appears that the total amount of debts due me, together with the amount of cash and merchandize on hand, is £2510 4s. 1d.; the amount of debts due from me to others, together with the £2000 capital stock commenced with, (and which is placed in the right hand columns,) is £2273 0s. 7d. The difference between £2510 4s. 1d. and £2273 0s. 7d., is £237 3s. 6d., which is my nett gain subsequent to the date of my last balance sheet.

NOTE.—When the price of freight is stipulated between the parties, it should be named, but if you have not any previous understanding as to the rate to be charged, you can say at the customary rate.

Of the three Bills of Lading, the Shipper retains one; one he sends to his Consignee, and the third is retained by the Master himself. In some important cases, duplicate bills are sent to the Consignee by different opportunities of conveyance, so that in case one should be lost, as by the dangers of the sea, the other may reach its destined port.

N. B.—The above note has reference to the Shipper's Bill of Lading on the twenty-fourth page.

ROGER WELLINGTON.

Of Promissory Notes.

A Promissory Note is an engagement in writing to pay a certain sum of money, mentioned in it, to a person named, or to his order, or to such person or bearer.

A Note, in its original form of a promise from one person to pay a sum of money to another, bears no particular resemblance to a bill of exchange; but when it is endorsed, there is a very great resemblance, for then it is an order by the endorser to the maker of the note, to pay the money to the endorsee. The endorser of the note corresponds to the drawer of the note; the maker to the drawee or acceptor, and the endorsee to the payee. The rights and obligations of these corresponding parties, are nearly or quite the same. It will not be necessary, therefore, to repeat all the rules that are applicable to, and govern the parties to a promissory note; we will, however, state the principal ones, and first, of the requisites of Promissory Notes.

No precise form of words is necessary to constitute a valid promissory note. A promise to account for a certain sum, or an acknowledgement of indebtedness for value received, is sufficient.

Like bills of exchange, they must be for the payment of money only, and not for the performance of some other act; and the amount to be paid must be fixed, and not variable, and must not depend upon any contingency, but must be payable absolutely and at all events.

There should be no uncertainty as to the person by whom or to whom it is payable. For example, a note payable to H. Jones, or to Lewis Davis, is not a valid promissory note.

A note payable to bearer generally, or to the payee or bearer, is transferable by mere delivery; and possession of such a note is prima facie proof of title. But if a note is drawn, payable to the order of the payee, the title will pass only by the endorsement of the payee; and if the endorsement be in full, the title passes to the person named therein; but if it be in blank, it passes to the holder by delivery merely.

To make a note payable at a particular place, it is not sufficient that there be a memorandum of the place at the bottom or margin thereof, but it must be expressed in the body of the note itself, and form a part thereof.

The words "value received" are not essential to the validity of a promissory note, although they should be inserted.

A note may be made by two or more persons; and in that case may be joint, or joint and several, according to its form. The makers of a joint and several note, may be sued upon it either jointly or separately; and if sued separately, a recovery of judgment (without satisfaction) against one, will not be a bar to a recovery against another maker. But the makers of a joint note, should be sued jointly; for if they are sued separately, the action can be defeated by a plea in abatement of the nonjoinder of the other maker, or makers.

A note signed by two or more persons, written thus:—"We promise to pay," &c., is a joint note only; otherwise, if the words "jointly and severally" be added. A note written, "I promise to pay," &c., signed by two or more persons, is a joint and several note.

All who have signed or endorsed a note, are jointly and severally liable to the holder.

Consideration.

A valuable consideration is necessary to support a promissory note. A consideration founded in mere love or affection is not sufficient. Thus, a note drawn as a gift to a son or other relative, or to a friend, cannot be enforced as between the original parties. A mere moral obligation, though coupled with an express promise, is not sufficient consideration to support a note. A consideration which the law esteems valuable must exist, in order to furnish a just foundation for an action.

A note will be void, as between the original parties, if founded upon fraud or usurious debt, or where undue advantage was taken to obtain it of the maker; as, for instance, getting the maker intoxicated, for the purpose of obtaining his note.

Illegal consideration also will render a note void; as, when a note is given for the perpetration or concealment of a crime, or for a wager, or whenever the consideration is founded upon a transaction against sound morals, public rights, or public interests. There are but two cases in which a note is void in the hands of an innocent endorser for a valuable consideration; and these cases are, when the consideration in the note is money won at a play, or where the note is given for a usurious debt.

Of Presentment for Payment.

The contract of the maker being to pay the note upon due presentment at maturity, in order to charge the endorsers, it is the duty of the holder to demand payment of the maker on the very day on which, by law, the note becomes due; and unless the demand be so made the holder loses his remedy against the endorsers, although the maker would still be liable. The rules that were given to determine when bills of exchange became due apply as well to notes. Three days grace are allowed on all notes except those payable on demand, and those in which no time of payment is expressed; on such no days of grace are allowed.

When a note is made payable at any particular place, as, for instance, at a certain bank, due presentment must be made at that place in order to render the endorsers liable in case of non-payment. Notes payable at a particular bank, are generally left with that bank for payment.

If the note is payable generally, without any specification of place, the holder may present it for payment to the maker wherever he may be found; but it is not absolutely necessary that a personal demand be made; a demand at the maker's place of abode or business, is a good demand in some cases. The holder must use reasonable diligence in finding the maker, or his place of abode, or place of business, in order to charge the endorsers. But the maker is liable without such demand.

Proceeding on Non-Payment.

No protest is required to be made upon the dishonor of a note; although it is common to protest them for non-payment, especially in commercial towns. But in every case of the dishonor of a note, it is the duty of the holder to give due notice thereof to all the prior parties on the note to whom he means to look for payment; for the holder cannot recover against a party to whom he has failed to give due notice of the dishonor.

Of Payment.

If the maker makes due payment of a note to a bona fide holder, it will amount to a complete discharge of all other parties thereto.

But when payment is duly made by an endorser to the holder, such endorser, as a general rule, will retain his right to recover over against all the antecedent parties to the note, until he has received a full indemnity; such payment, however, will discharge all the endorsers, subsequent to himself.

Interest.

Interest is recoverable on a promissory note, in which there is no special agreement to pay interest, from the time when the principal becomes due, or ought to have been paid. A note payable on demand carries no interest till a demand is made, either by suit or otherwise, unless there is an agreement to pay interest. A note not on demand, in which no time of payment is mentioned, draws interest from date.

Whenever there is a special agreement to pay interest, that is, when the words "with use," or "with interest,"

&c., are contained in the note, it draws interest, of course, according to such agreement or contract.

A note is said to be outlawed in five years, from the time it becomes due. The statutes requires that all claims founded upon any instrument or contract not under seal, must be commenced within five years, next after the cause of action accrued, and not after.

Of Notice to an Endorser.

In giving notice to an endorser, it is not necessary that any particular form should be observed, provided that you describe the note for which he is bound, in such terms as can leave no room for him or others to misconstrue your meaning. If you state in your notice the date of the note, the amount, the time on which it became due, together with the maker's name, it is presumed that would be quite sufficient. It may be well to present a short and convenient form as follows:

Form of Notice.

Mr. Joseph Draper,

Sir,—The note for two hundred and ten pounds, currency, dated September the twentieth, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, that I hold against Jacob Rich, as maker, and which became due April the twentieth & twenty-third, and on which you are endorser, remains unpaid; therefore I shall look to you for the payment thereof.

SAMUEL HOLLIS.

Montreal, April 23rd, 1850.

CHATTEL NOTES.

We have seen that in order to constitute a promissory note, it must be for the payment of money only; if then a note be payable otherwise than in money, it is called a chattel note. Chattel notes are not negotiable, and cannot be sued except in the name of the payee. No days of grace are allowed upon them.

It is the duty of the maker of a chattel note, payable in specific articles, at a place mentioned in the note, to tender the articles, at that place, and at the time the note becomes due. If the maker neglects to make such tender, he will be liable to the payee to pay him the amount of the note in cash. But if, on the other hand, the maker tender the articles mentioned in the note, at the proper time and place, according to the contract, and the creditor neglects or refuses to receive them, the debt is thereby discharged; but the right of property in the articles tendered passes to the creditor. The debtor may abandon the goods tendered; but if he elects to retain possession of them, he will be considered as bailee of the creditor, at his (the creditor's) risk and expense. The relation of debtor and creditor would in such case be changed to that of bailor and bailee.

There is a difference as to tender between portable and cumbrous articles. With respect to the former, a tender as above must be made; as to the latter, it will be sufficient if the debtor offer to deliver as the creditor shall direct.

OF BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

Exchange is the act of paying or receiving the money of one country for its equivalent in the money of another country, by means of Bills of Exchange. This operation, therefore, comprehends both the reduction of moneys and the negotiation of Bills; it determines the comparative value of the currencies of different countries, and shows how foreign debts are discharged, and remittances made from one country to another without the risk, trouble, or expense of transporting specie or bullion.

A Bill of Exchange is a written order of request, addressed by one person to a second, desiring him to pay a sum of money to a third, or to any other to whom that third person shall order it to be paid; or it may be made payable to bearer.

Bills of Exchange are very useful to business men, who wish to send large sums of money to individuals living at a distance from them. "If A, living in Montreal, wishes to receive £250 pounds sterling, which B, in London, owes him, he applies to C, who is going from Montreal to London, to pay him £250 pounds sterling, and take his order or Draft on B for that sum, payable at sight. A receives his debt by transferring it to C, who carries his money across the Atlantic, in the shape of a Bill of Exchange, without any danger or risk in the transportation; and on his arrival at London, he presents the bill to B and is paid." It is a mercantile contract in which four persons are mostly concerned, as follows:

First.—The person who makes the bill is called the drawer.

Second.—He to whom it is addressed, the drawee; and when he undertakes to pay the amount, he is then called the acceptor.

Third.—The person who gives the value for the Bill, who is called the buyer, taker, and remitter.

Fourth.—The person to whom the Bill is ordered to be paid, who is called the payee, and who may, by endorsement, pass it to any other person to receive the money, that other is called the endorsee, as the payee is, with respect to him, the endorser; any one who happens for the time to have the legal possession of the bill, is called the holder of it.

Many mercantile payments are made in Bills of Exchange, which pass from hand to hand until due, like any other circulating medium.

A bill is either foreign or inland. It is called foreign when drawn by a person in one province or country, upon one in another province or country; and inland, when both drawer and drawee reside in the same province or country. These last are generally termed drafts.

Foreign bills are usually drawn in sets; that is copies of the bills are made on separate pieces of paper, each part containing a condition that it shall continue payable only so long as the others remain unpaid. Whenever any one of a set is paid, the others are void; for the whole set constitute but one bill. The reason for drawing them in sets is, that in case one part is lost or accidentally destroyed, the other may be received by the drawee.

Of the Requisites of a Bill.

A Bill of Exchange must always be in writing. No precise form of words is necessary. It will be sufficient if it contain an order or direction by one person to another, to pay money to a third. It must be for the payment of money, and money only; and the sum to be paid must be payable absolutely and at all events, and must not depend upon any circumstance that may, or may not happen; the exact sum also must be inserted. The place where, and on which it is drawn, should appear upon the face of the bill; there should also be a date. The time when bills are payable should be fixed; usually they are drawn payable at a certain time after sight, or after date; that is, after acceptance. It is not essential to the validity of a bill that it be negotiable, or that it contain the words "value received," although in many cases it is highly important that these words be inserted.

Of the Obligation of Parties.

The drawer's undertaking in a Bill of Exchange is, that the drawee, upon due presentment to him, shall accept such bill, and pay the same when due, and that if the drawee do not accept it, or pay it when due; he will pay the amount of the bill to the holder, together with certain damages, which the law allows; provided he is duly notified of such non-payment.

It is the payee's duty, if the bill remain in his possession, to present it to the drawee for acceptance and for payment, at the proper time and place, and in case the drawee refuse to accept or pay, to give notice without delay to the drawer of such refusal. If the payee endorse the bill, his undertaking, in regard to all subsequent holders, is exactly the same as the drawer's.

The obligations of the endorsee or holder, are the same as those of the payee previous to his endorsing the bill.

The acceptor undertakes, and is bound to pay the bill, according to the tenor of the acceptance, when it becomes due, and upon due presentment thereof. In short, all those who have signed, accepted, or endorsed a Bill of Exchange, are jointly and severally liable upon it to the holder.

Of Transfer.

A bill which does not contain a direction or request to pay to the order of the payee or to the bearer, is not negotiable or tranferable, so as to render the drawer or acceptor liable to the person to whom it is transferred, though the payee would be liable on his endorsing such a bill, and the endorsee could recover against him.

A bill which is made payable to order, is transferable only by endorsement; but if payable to bearer, it is transferable by mere delivery. Endorsements are of two kinds —blank, and full or special endorsements. A blank endorsement is made by the mere signature of the endorser on the back of the bill; and if it be the signature of the payee, its effect is to make the bill thereafter payable to bearer.

An endorsement in full expresses in whose favor the endorsement is made. Thus an endorsement in full by Charles Dill is usually in this form: "Pay James Harrison or order," and signed "Charles Dill." Its effect is to make the bill payable to James Harrison, or his order only.

An endorsee has a right to convert a blank endorsement into a special one, by writing over the signature the necessary words: and on the other hand he may convert a special into a blank endorsement, by striking out the words that made it an endorsement in full.

Of Presentment for Acceptance.

If a bill be drawn payable at sight, or at a certain period after sight, or after demand, it is absolutely necessary that the holder present it to the drawee for acceptance. For, until such presentment there is no right of action against any party; and generally, unless it be made within a reasonable time, the holder loses his remedy against the antecedent parties.

Of Acceptance.

An acceptance is an engagement by the drawee to pay the bill when due. It may be general or conditional, and either before or after the bill is drawn. It must be in writing, though no precise form is necessary; any written words clearly denoting an intention to accept the bill are sufficient.

The holder is entitled to require from the drawee an absolute engagement to pay according to the tenor of the bill, unencumbered with any condition or qualification. If the drawee refuse to give the holder a general and unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dishonored.

A bill is said to be honored when it is duly accepted; and when acceptance or payment is refused, it is said to be dishonored.

Of Proceedings on Non-Acceptance.

Immediately upon the dishonor of a bill, by the refusal of the drawee to accept it, it is in general the indispensable duty of the holder to have the bill duly protested, and notice of such dishonor and protest given to the antecedent parties to whom he intends to look for indemnity.

The protest is generally drawn up by a notary public; it is a solemn declaration against any loss to be sustained on the part of the holder by the non-acceptance or non-payment of the bill. In respect to inland bills a protest is not absolutely necessary, although it is usual; notice of their dishonor, however, must be given by the holder to the antecedent parties, in order to make them responsible.

Upon non-acceptance of a bill, if due notice thereof has been given to the antecedent parties, the holder can insist upon immediate payment of the bill from them.

Of Presentment for Payment.

If the bill has been duly accepted, it is the duty of the holder to present it to the acceptor for payment on the very day on which it becomes due; and if the bill was accepted payable at a particular place, the holder is bound to make a demand of payment at that place. For, if the holder neglect to present the bill at such time and place, he cannot recover against the drawer or endorser in case the acceptor refuses payment.

In determining when a bill becomes due, days of grace, as they are called, must be allowed. It is a custom in this country to give three days grace on all bills except those payable on demand. Demand of payment must not be made, therefore, until the third day of grace, unless such day be Sunday or Holidays observed at public offices, and places of business, in which case demand must be made on the second day of grace.

Of Proceedings on Non-Payment.

The duties of the holder, upon dishonor of a bill by non-payment, are the same as upon dishonor by non-acceptance. He must make due protest for non-payment, and give due notice of the dishonor to the other parties to the bill; in which case the holder is entitled to a full satisfaction of all damages sustained by him by reason of the dishonor, against such other parties to the bill; but if he neglect to do this the antecedent parties are discharged from all liability to the holder.

Of Payment and Other Discharges.

The acceptor being primarily liable on a bill of exchange, it is evident that a payment by him to the holder discharges all the other parties from liability on the bill, provided the payment is made without knowledge of any infirmity in the title of the holder, and the names of the parties to to the bill are not forgeries. Payment by the acceptor should be made at maturity, and not before.

The drawer and endorers will be discharged from liability by a valid and binding agreement (in which they do not concur) between the holder and acceptor, where by time is given to the acceptor for the payment of the bill after it is due.

A discharge to the acceptor, we have seen, is a discharge to all the parties to the bill; but a discharge to an endorser is no discharge to the prior endorsers, though it is to the subsequent endorsers.

COPY OF

AN ACT PASSED IN OUR PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT, IN AUGUST, 1850, RESPECTING PROTESTED NOTES, AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

An Act to amend and explain the Acts, therein mentioned, relative to Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, and to limit the sum to be allowed for the expenses of noting and protesting Bills and Notes in certain cases, under the Act to regulate the damages on protested Bills of Exchange within this Province.

WHEREAS the expenses now attending the Protesting of Bills, Drafts or Orders drawn by persons in this Province, or of Promissory Notes made or negotiated in Canada have in many cases, been found to be oppressive, and whereas inconvenience has resulted from the interpretation put upon the Provision hereinafter mentioned:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, and of the Legislative Assembly, of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and intituled, "An Act to re-unite the Provinces of "Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in Upper Canada the sum to be allowed to any Notary under the fifth section of the Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign and intituled, "An Act to regulate the rates of "damages on Protested Bills of exchange in Upper Canada,"* for the expenses of noting and protesting any such Bill, Draft, Order or Promissory Note as is mentioned in the fourth section of the said Act, shall hereafter be two shillings and six pence, currency, with a further sum of one shilling and three pence, currency, and no more for each notice, in addition to postages actually paid: any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted, That in Lower Canada,† the sum to be allowed to any Notary for noting and protesting any Bill of Exchange, Draft, Order or Promissory Note, shall hereafter be five shillings, currency, with a further sum of two shillings and six pence, currency, and no more for each notice, in addition to postages actually paid, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it enacted, That no Clerk, Teller or Agent of any Bank shall act as a Notary in the protesting of any Bill or Promissory Note payable at the Bank or any of its agencies in which such Clerk, Teller, or Agent is employed.

* 12 Vict., chap. 76.

† 12 Vict., chap. 22, Sec. 18 and Schedule.

IV. And for the avoidance of doubts as to the true intent and meaning of the seventh section of the Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's reign and intituled "An Act to amend the law regulating Inland Bills of Exchange " and Promissory Notes and the Protesting thereof, and foreign Bills in certain "cases," be it declared and enacted, that it is not and shall not be necessary under the said section that the words " only, and not otherwise or elsewhere," or words of like import be inserted in the body of the Bill or Note, or in any acceptance of a Bill or Note, in order to prevent the same from being payable generally or the acceptance from being general; but if in any Bill or Note, or in the acceptance thereof, the same be made payable at any stated place, it shall be understood to be made payable at such place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, and the promise or acceptance shall be held to be qualified accordingly: Provided always, that this section shall not extend to Upper Canada.

V. And be it enacted, That in Upper Canada, the Birthday of the Sovereign, Christmas-day, New Year's day, and Good Friday, shall be Holydays, and any Promissory Note or Bill of Exchange falling due on any one of these days, shall be deemed and taken to be due on the day preceding any of such days, unless such preceding day shall be Sunday, and then such Promissory Note or Bill of Exchange shall be deemed and taken to be due on the Saturday next preceding such Sunday.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Protests of Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes, shall be taken and received in all the Courts of Law and Equity in this Province, to be primâ facie evidence of the allegations and facts therein setforth and contained.

VENERABLE PRECEDENT.

Certain instruments of writing, such as deeds, bonds, mortgages, transfers, leases, &c., are required by law to express a consideration as having been received by the person who conveys property, or grants privileges from the person to whom the property, is conveyed, or to whom the privilege is granted.

They are often begun with the following preamble:—This Indenture Witnesseth, that on the tenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, Chas. Ball of the Town of——, in the County of ——, in the District of ——, of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of five shillings, of lawful money, of the Province of Canada, to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged and confirmed, hath bargained and sold (or leased) &c., unto William Hall of the (here insert Town of ——, County of ——, and District of ——,) of the second part, &c. &c. &c.

In presenting this short preamble, we have only one object in view, viz.: to inform those who are not aware of the fact, that a consideration is necessary, as the infallable wisdom and unquestionable authority of law, require that it should be observed. Perhaps I shall be told, that the law is based upon the broad principle which entitles one person who sells property, or grants a privilege to another, to an equivalent in return, or in other words, that no man shall claim a right in the property of another, without paying him for it. The principle is good enough; but how far is it adhered to by its votaries? Five shillings, is the sum commonly named as the consideration, and even one penny would answer the end of law, although the amount of property, or the privilege bestowed, for which it is named as the consideration made in return, should be worth five thousand pounds.

All instruments under seal are deeds; but the term "deed" is generally understood as applying to conveyances of land, houses, &c. &c. The consideration of a deed may either be good or valuable. A good consideration is founded upon natural love and affection between near relations by blood; a valuable consideration is founded on something deemed valuable, as money, goods, service, or marriage.

Every deed or contract is void when made for any fraudulent purpose, or in violation of law.

FORM OF A SIMPLE DEED.

A BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT I, Charles Miller of the Town of Chatham, in the District of Montreal, of the Province of Canada, gentleman, of the first part; am held and firmly bound unto William Hall of the City of Kingston, in the Midland District, of said Province, builder, of the second part; in the sum of one hundred and thirty one pounds, of lawful money of the Province of Canada, to be paid to the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; for which payment well and truly to be made, I the said party of the first part, bind myself, my heirs, executors, and administrators, (jointly and severally if more than one obligor) firmly by these presents. Sealed with my Seal, dated this fourteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bounden Charles Miller, his heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid, unto the above named William Hall, or to his certain Attorney, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, the just and full sum of sixty five pounds ten shillings, currency, in one month, (or one year after the date of this Bond, as the fact may be,) with interest, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable quarter-yearly (or half-yearly or yearly, as the agreement may be,) to wit: on the fourteenth days of August, November, and February in each year, or on any other days as the parties may agree, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, Sealed, and Delivered, in the presence of
James Brown,
W. Harrison Richmond.

} CHARLES MILLER. [Seal.]

Condition to Maintain a Person.

(This obligation as in the preceding.)

The condition of this obligation is such, that if the said Charles Miller shall, during the natural life of William Hall, suitably support and maintain the said William Hall, and provide him with suitable clothes, food, drink, medicine, and nursing, and all other things necessary, in the house of said Charles Miller, (or in such suitable house which said Charles Miller, may provide,) then this obligation shall be void; otherwise the same to remain in full force and virtue.

Condition of Indemnity for Signing a Bond.

The Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said Charles Miller shall Indemnify the said William Hall, against all loss, cost, damage and expense, to which he may be subjected, by reason of his signing, at the request, and as surety for said Charles Miller a bond to the Court of Chancery, of the Town of————————, in County of ————————, and District of————————, in the Province of Canada, in the penalty of————————pounds, conditional for the faithful discharge, by said Charles Miller, of his duties, as executor of the last will and testament of William Stearnley, deceased, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise, the same to remain in full force and virtue.

Condition of a Bond of a Treasurer of a Company.

Whereas, the above bound Charles Miller has been chosen treasurer of the (here describe what he is Treasurer of,) by reason whereof, he will receive into his hands divers sums of money, notes, chattels, and other things, the property of said (trustees as the fact may be;) now the condition of this obligation is such that if the said Charles Miller, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, at the expiration of his said office, upon request to him or them to be made, shall make and give unto the said——, a true and just account of all such sum or sums of money, notes, chattels, and other things, that have come into his hands or possession, as treasurer aforesaid; and shall pay, and deliver over to his successor in office, or any other person duly authorized to receive the same, all such balance or sums of money, notes, chattels and other things, as shall be in his hands and due by him to the said———, then this obligation to be void; otherwise, the same to remain in full force and virtue.

Two Witnesses is Held a Legal Conformity.

"A BOND or obligation is a deed whereby the obligor binds himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, to pay a certain sum of money at a day appointed, with a condition to declare the same void on due performance, and which is properly a money bond."

The penal sum (the penalty or forfeiture) of this bond is one hundred and thirty one pounds; the conditions are the payment of sixty-five pounds ten shillings with interest, &c.

The obligor is the party bound, and who signs, seals, and delivers the bond. The obligee is the party to whom the obligor becomes bound.

It is usual to insert double the amount of money to be secured in the obligation; that is to say, the penalty is made double the amount of the condition.

By the letter of the above bond, Charles Miller is bound to pay one hundred and thirty-one pounds; but the subsequent conditions declare, that if he pay sixty-five pounds ten shillings, with interest, then he is to be discharged from any further claim; from which it would be natural enough to conclude, that if he did not pay the amount of the condition, then he shall be holden to pay the larger amount, as named in the penalty; but this is not the fact; for the amount of the actual debt and interest thereon, together with costs, are all that can be collected from him who executes the bond, however great the penalty may be.

It is a general rule, that the obligee cannot collect from the obligor, more than the sum named as the penalty at any rate; "for a man can have no more than his debt, and the penalty is understood to be the utmost of his claim."

The costs, however, can be collected, over and above the amount of the penalty. If then the obligee cannot collect of the obligor, any more than the amount of the penalty; it is desirable that such penalty should be sufficiently large to cover all contingencies.

FORM OF A WILL.

THIS INSTRUMENT WITNESSETH, that I William Stearnley, of the City and District of Montreal, of the Province of Canada, being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament; hereby revoking and making null and void all former last wills and testaments, and writings in the nature of last wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

MY will is, first that my funeral charges and just debts shall be paid by my executor hereinafter named.

THE residue of my estate and property which shall not be required for the payment of my just debts, funeral charges,

A Codicil Annexed to, or Endorsed on the Back of a Will.

I, Thomas Dill, named as the testator in the Will to which this is annexed, (or within contained,) do hereby make this present codicil, which I do order and direct, shall be taken as a part of my annexed (or within) last will and testament, and which Will, I, in all respects, excepting wherein it is altered or changed by this codicil, do hereby republish and confirm. I Give and bequeath to my grandson, Oliver Jones, the child of my daughter, Eveline B., who inter-married with James Bond, the sum of pounds.

And whereas, my son, Horatio Dill, since my making my last will and testament, has died, leaving a widow and five children, (two boys and three girls); the boys named as follows: Alonzo Dill, and Henry Dill; the girls named, Mary Dill, Sarah D., and Helen D., I do hereby (here insert all the changes, revocations, or additions, which the testator may wish to make.)

In testimony whereof, &c.

To Disinherit an Heir at Law.

An heir at law cannot be disinherited by a will, unless by express terms in the Will, showing such an intention on the part of the testator. It is, therefore, generally requisite to name in the Will every person or family, who would be lawfully entitled to share in the inheritance, if there were no Will. And this may be done by naming such individual or individuals as the testator intends to disinherit, and declaring that he shall give them nothing, assigning the reasons for such decision, or by giving to each of such persons, five or ten shillings, or any other nominal small sum.

This, however, is a ceremony which is not of very frequent occurrence.

After the decease of the testator, Wills should be recorded in the District where they are executed, so as to be where they would always remain subject to the inspection of any-one that might be interested to know their import; and to that end, it would be well that the testator should, in his last illness, acknowledge in the presence of a JUSTICE of the PEACE, that the Will in question is his deliberate act and final determination, and that he does, in the presence of said Magistrate, confirm it as his last Will and testament. It is very important that Wills should be so written, as to admit of no possible misconstruction. They must be, in every respect, according to law, or they will be in a manner, if not wholly, useless.

The testator's name must be accompanied by a seal, and the whole must be executed, or acknowledged and confessed, in the presence of two witnesses, who must sign their names as such in the presence of the testator, and in presence of each other.

RICHMOND'S

INTEREST TABLES

FIVE PER CENT.

EXPLANATION, OF THE INTEREST TABLES AT 4, 4½ AND 5 PER CENT.

THE principal, beginning at £1 and proceeding to £500, will, in all cases, be found at the head of the page. The time, for which the interest on any given amount may be sought, will be found in the left-hand column of the tables, from 1 day to 30, and from 1 to 12 months. The interest required for the given time on the given principal, will be found against the time contained in the tables, and directly under the principal. If the interest on months and days be required, add the interest for the given months and days together; and, in like manner, for the years, months, and and days.

W. H. RICHMOND.

RICHMOND'S

AT SIX PER CENT.

EXPLANATION.

THE principal, beginning at £1, and proceeding to £1000, will, in all cases, be found at the head of the page. The time, for which the interest on any given amount may be sought, will be found in the left-hand column of the tables, from 1 day to 30, and for 100 and 200 days, and from 1 to 12 months. The interest required for the given time on the given principal, will be found against the time contained in the tables, and directly under the principal. If the interest on months and days be required, add the interest for the given months and days together; and, in like manner, for the years, months, and days.

W. H. RICHMOND.

ON SUMS FROM £1 TO £8, FROM 1 DAY TO 30, AND FOR 100 AND 200 DAYS, AND FROM 1 TO 12 MONTHS.

RICHMOND'S

AT

SEVEN PER CENT.

EXPLANATION.

The principal, beginning at Five Shillings, and proceeding to £100, will, in all cases, be found at the head of the page. The time, for which the interest on any given amount may be sought, will be found in the left-hand column of the tables, from 1 day to 30, and from 1 to 12 months. The interest required for the given time on the given principal, will be found against the time contained in the tables, and directly under the principal. If the interest on months and days be required, add the interest for the given months and days together; and, in like manner, for the years, months, and days.

W. H. Richmond.
